CAREER EDUCATION - SUPPORTING FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES

Career education is vital, especially when introduced early, as it empowers students to discover their interests, strengths, and passions. By broadening their understanding of the wide array of career options, we can better prepare them for future opportunities.

Grade 10 Students

Your grade ten year should be a time of transition, during which you begin to shift away from focusing on the day-to-day and to thinking about your future. Grade ten also marks the time in your life when you should be taking more self-responsibility over your life, your studies, and your future. It is a time of exploration, discovery and learning. Who are you? Who do you want to be? What you want to become? The Career Centre can help provide you with tools, information, and guidance you need. Whether it be volunteering, helping develop a resume to get a job, exploring post-secondary options or working on developing your scholarship resume. We are here to help!

Grade 11 Students

Grade eleven is a time when you need to bring a greater focus to researching your future, specifically post-secondary programs, and the universities, institutes, and colleges at which these programs are offered. Make sure you have the required courses needed to be accepted into the program of choice. See the career advisor or your counselor if you are unsure. By the summer of grade eleven, you should have developed a shortened list of post-secondary institutions which you are interested in to get your grade 12 year off right. Any parent or student looking for information to guide them in making the best post-secondary decisions can look at two sites available to help connect students with their best education opportunities. Post Secondary BC and Education Planner BC are tools that allow students to explore and make informative decisions regarding their post-secondary options. Should you require any help, or unsure where to start please contact the career advisor for directions.

Grade 12 Students: It is also important to start thinking about how you are going to pay for post-secondary. Are you applying for scholarships and bursaries? The time to start thinking and planning is right after Spring break. Do you need more volunteer hours? Or interested in job exploration? Please stop by the Career Centre, and we will see where we can help. GRADS OF 2025: If you have won any entrance scholarships, or outside scholarships or bursaries, please let the Career Advisor know so you can be recognized for your achievements.

IMAGINE HIGH THEATRE COMPANY - SPONGEBOB

A huge congratulations to the Imagine High Theatre team for producing an exceptionally joyful and polished Spongebob performance right before spring break. They hosted many elementary and middle school classes throughout the week and two phenomenal evening shows. You all absolutely brought the vibrant world of Bikini Bottom to life in such an exceptional way. From the bright energy of the cast to the stunning set and choreography, it was evident that so much heart and hard work went into every moment of the production.

Thank you so much to Mz. Miller, Ms. Maxwell, Ms. Froese, and Ms. Christie for sharing their passions and talents with our students to support such an amazing performance. Roughly 60 students performed in this show, and after-school theatre was our biggest extra-curricular group this year.

Your creativity, talent, and teamwork truly shone through, making it a performance to remember! You've set the bar high for what high school theatre can achieve, and it was a joy to witness such a unique and exciting show. Keep up the amazing work—this is just the beginning of even greater things ahead! Bravo to the entire cast and crew!
