		Cst. Rick O'Brien died in the line of duty September 22nd, 2023. Cst. Rick O'Brien was a decorated officer who led by example and showed his communities that a smile in the uniform had the power to light up the eyes of a child or help someone intimidated by police presence. He reminded the public that behind the uniform was an individual with dreams, friends and family. Cst. O'Brien used his exceptional work ethic and caring approach to work closely with youth that had mental health struggles, alongside attending schools and youth events. Working with at risk youth was a passion for Rick, and this scholarship is in memorial of the incredible contribution he made within the communities he lived and worked.
